

GCI Individual Coaching Terms and Conditions

Full payment is required before coaching sessions can commence.

All coaching sessions to be completed within 12 months from the date a coach is allocated to the coachee.

Coaching sessions are non-transferable. To cancel or reschedule a session, the coachee must notify the coach at least 24 hours prior to appointment.

A session is considered No Show if coachee does not attend session or fails to notify the coach at least 24 hours prior to appointment. No Show will result in a full charge of a session.

Unused sessions are non-refundable.

GCI Reflective Practice Terms and Conditions

Full payment is required before course commencement.

The Reflective Practice course requires 4-5 participants to form a group. Once we have enough participants to form a group, our training coordinator will contact you with more information and some date/time options.

The cohort learning experience is an important aspect to this course. It is essential that intending participants are able to attend all workshop days with the same cohort. Please keep this in mind prior to completing your application.

Reflective Practice sessions are non-transferable and unused sessions are non-refundable.
